 #THE PROFILER

CASE INTRODUCTION

I told you scammers do one of three things when caught, run, play the victim or falsely claim defamation. They NEVER admit wrongdoing. Jeff McDougal does the latter two. Behind the scenes since his profile was rightfully banned from LinkedIn for scamming and harassing numerous women while pretending to work for Adobe, he's continued to harass the women who were brave enough to speak out about him, my buddies Russell and Mark and tried it with me too.

NONE of us scare.

NONE of us register his hollow, weak flails as anything more than a child screaming to put his hand back in the cookie jar after losing access to it.

In the above metaphor the cookie jar is his LinkedIn profile that was banned. He is fighting for one thing and one thing only—the ability to scam and harass women once again without consequence.

What you're about to see is what happens when accountability derails lunacy.

Let's get started.

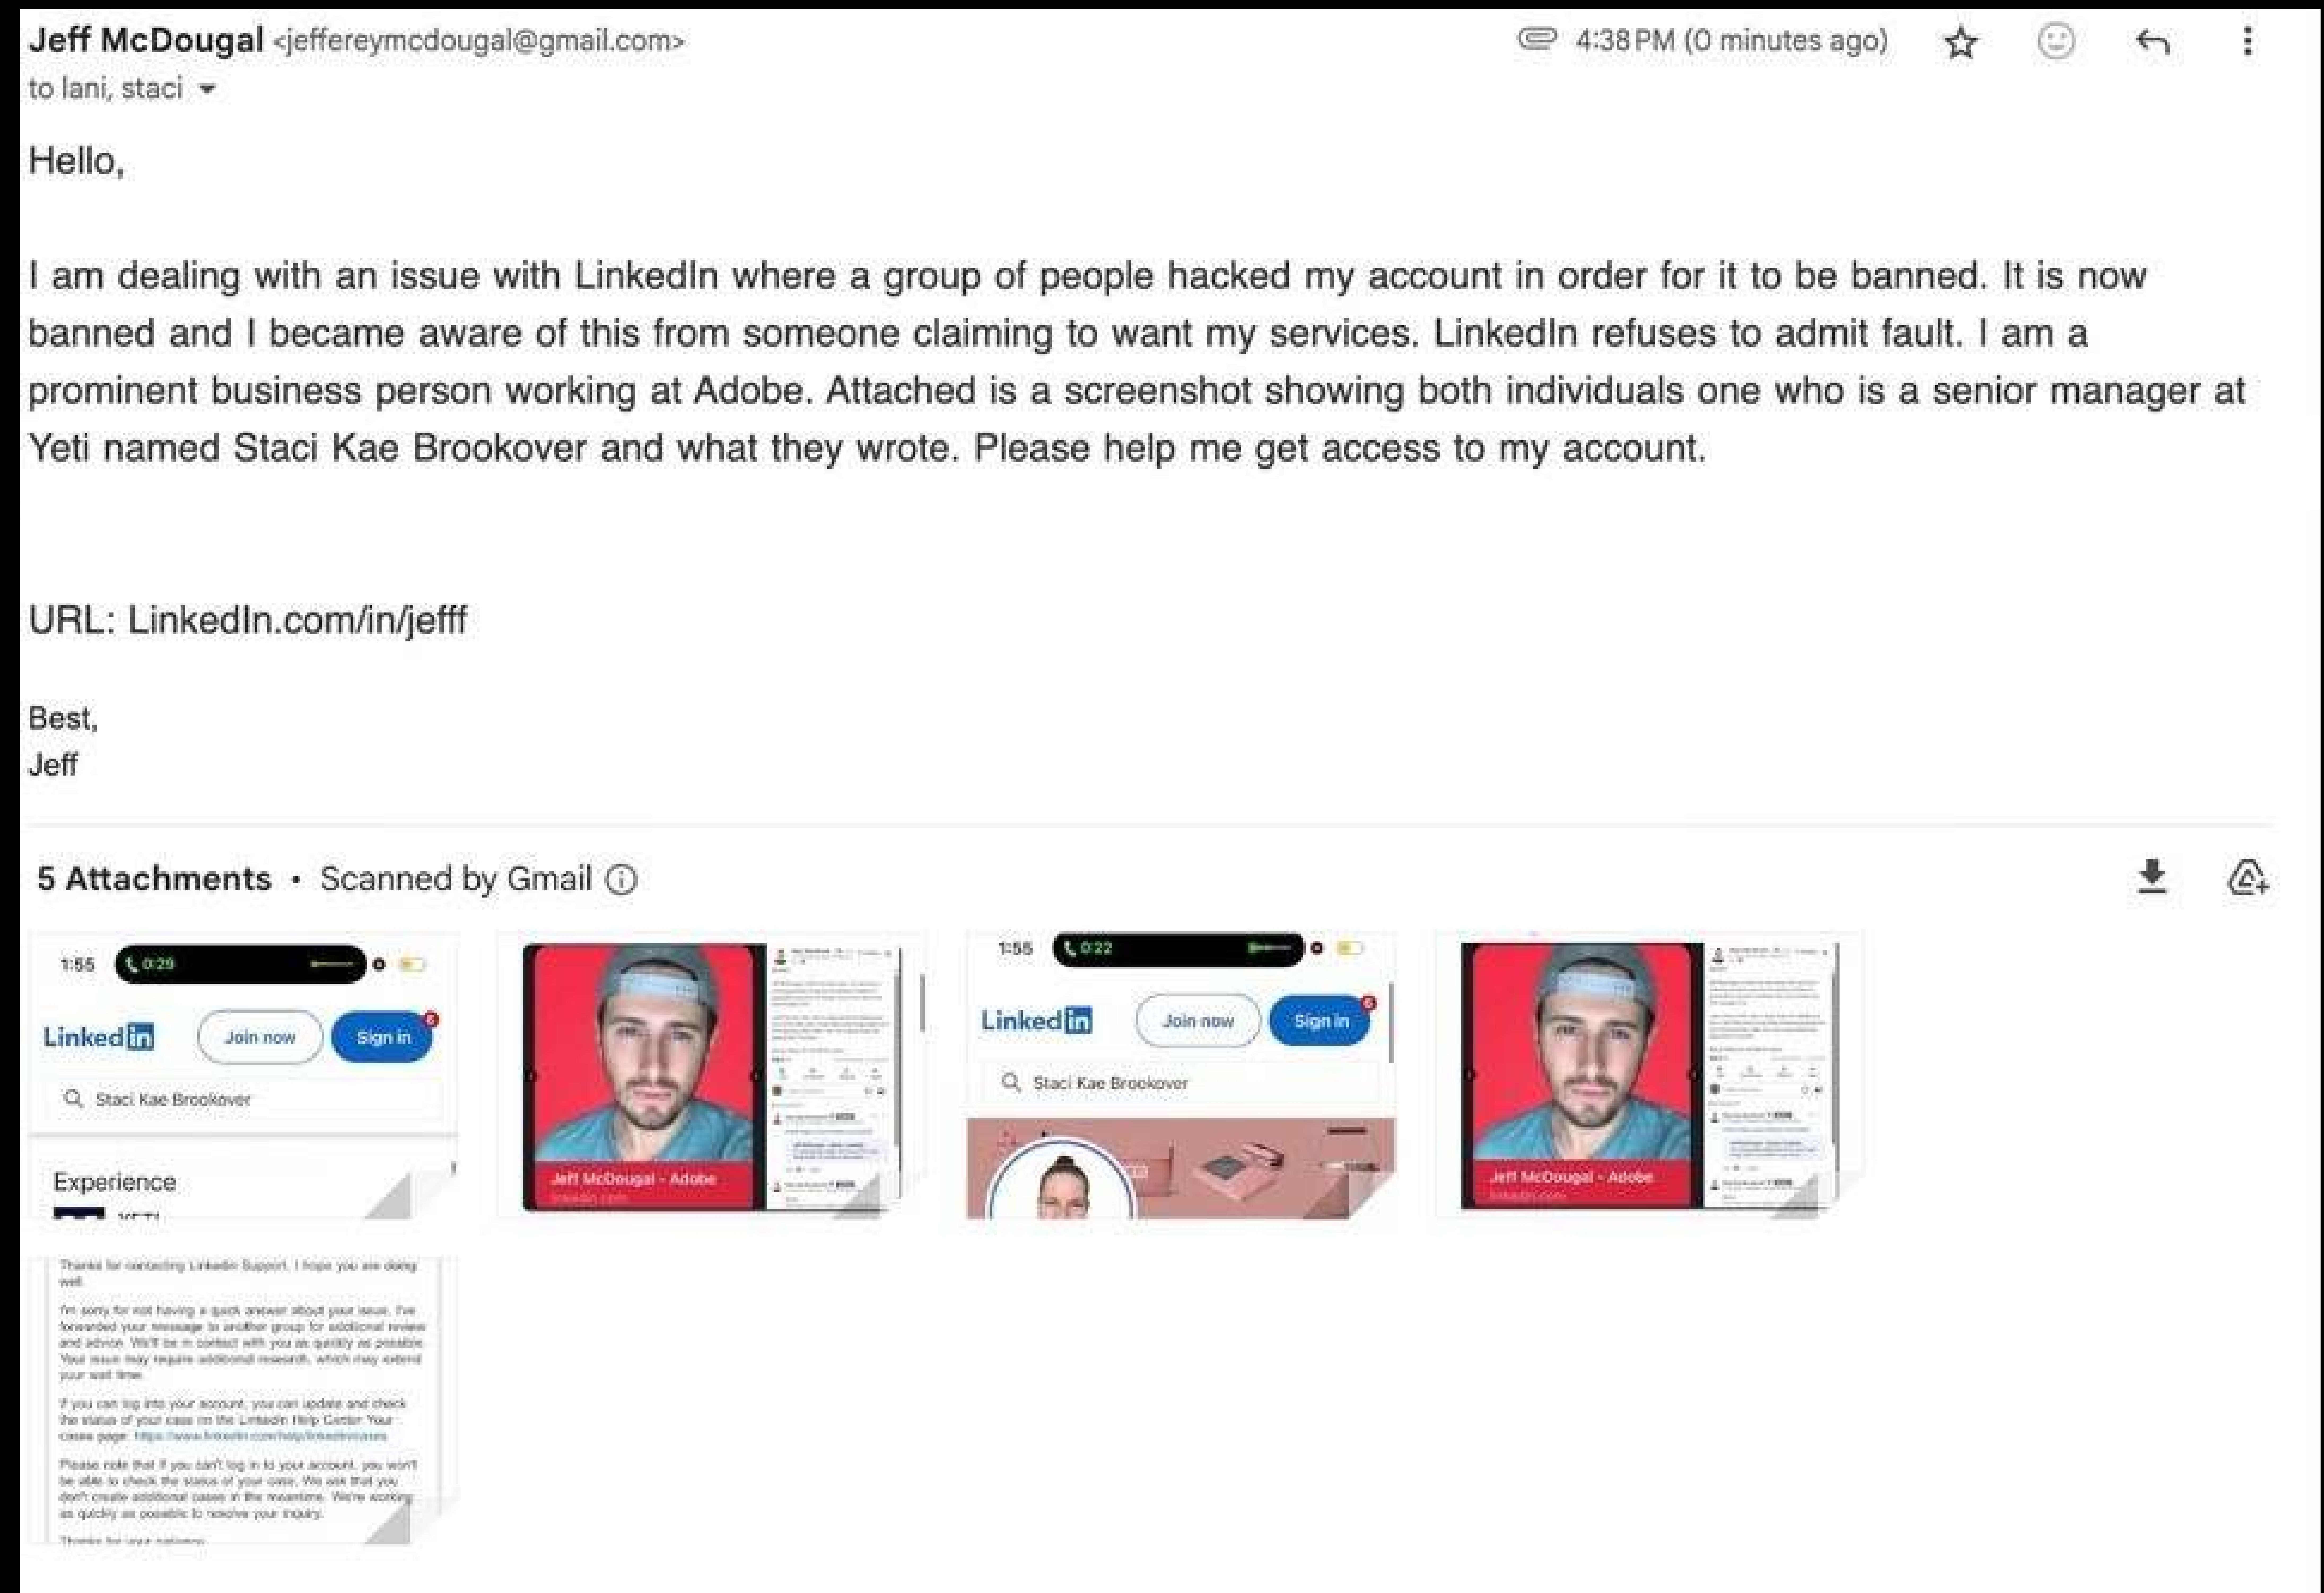

JEFF MCDOUGAL—UNABLE TO HANDLE HIS PROFILE'S CHOKEPOINT - RECAP

If you've followed me for awhile you've seen me say scammers do one of three things when they're caught:

1. Run
2. Try and fight back
3. Play the victim

They never EVER admit fault. I've seen thousands of fake profiles and scammers have gotten contentious and in the face of the truth they went down with the lies that made them money.

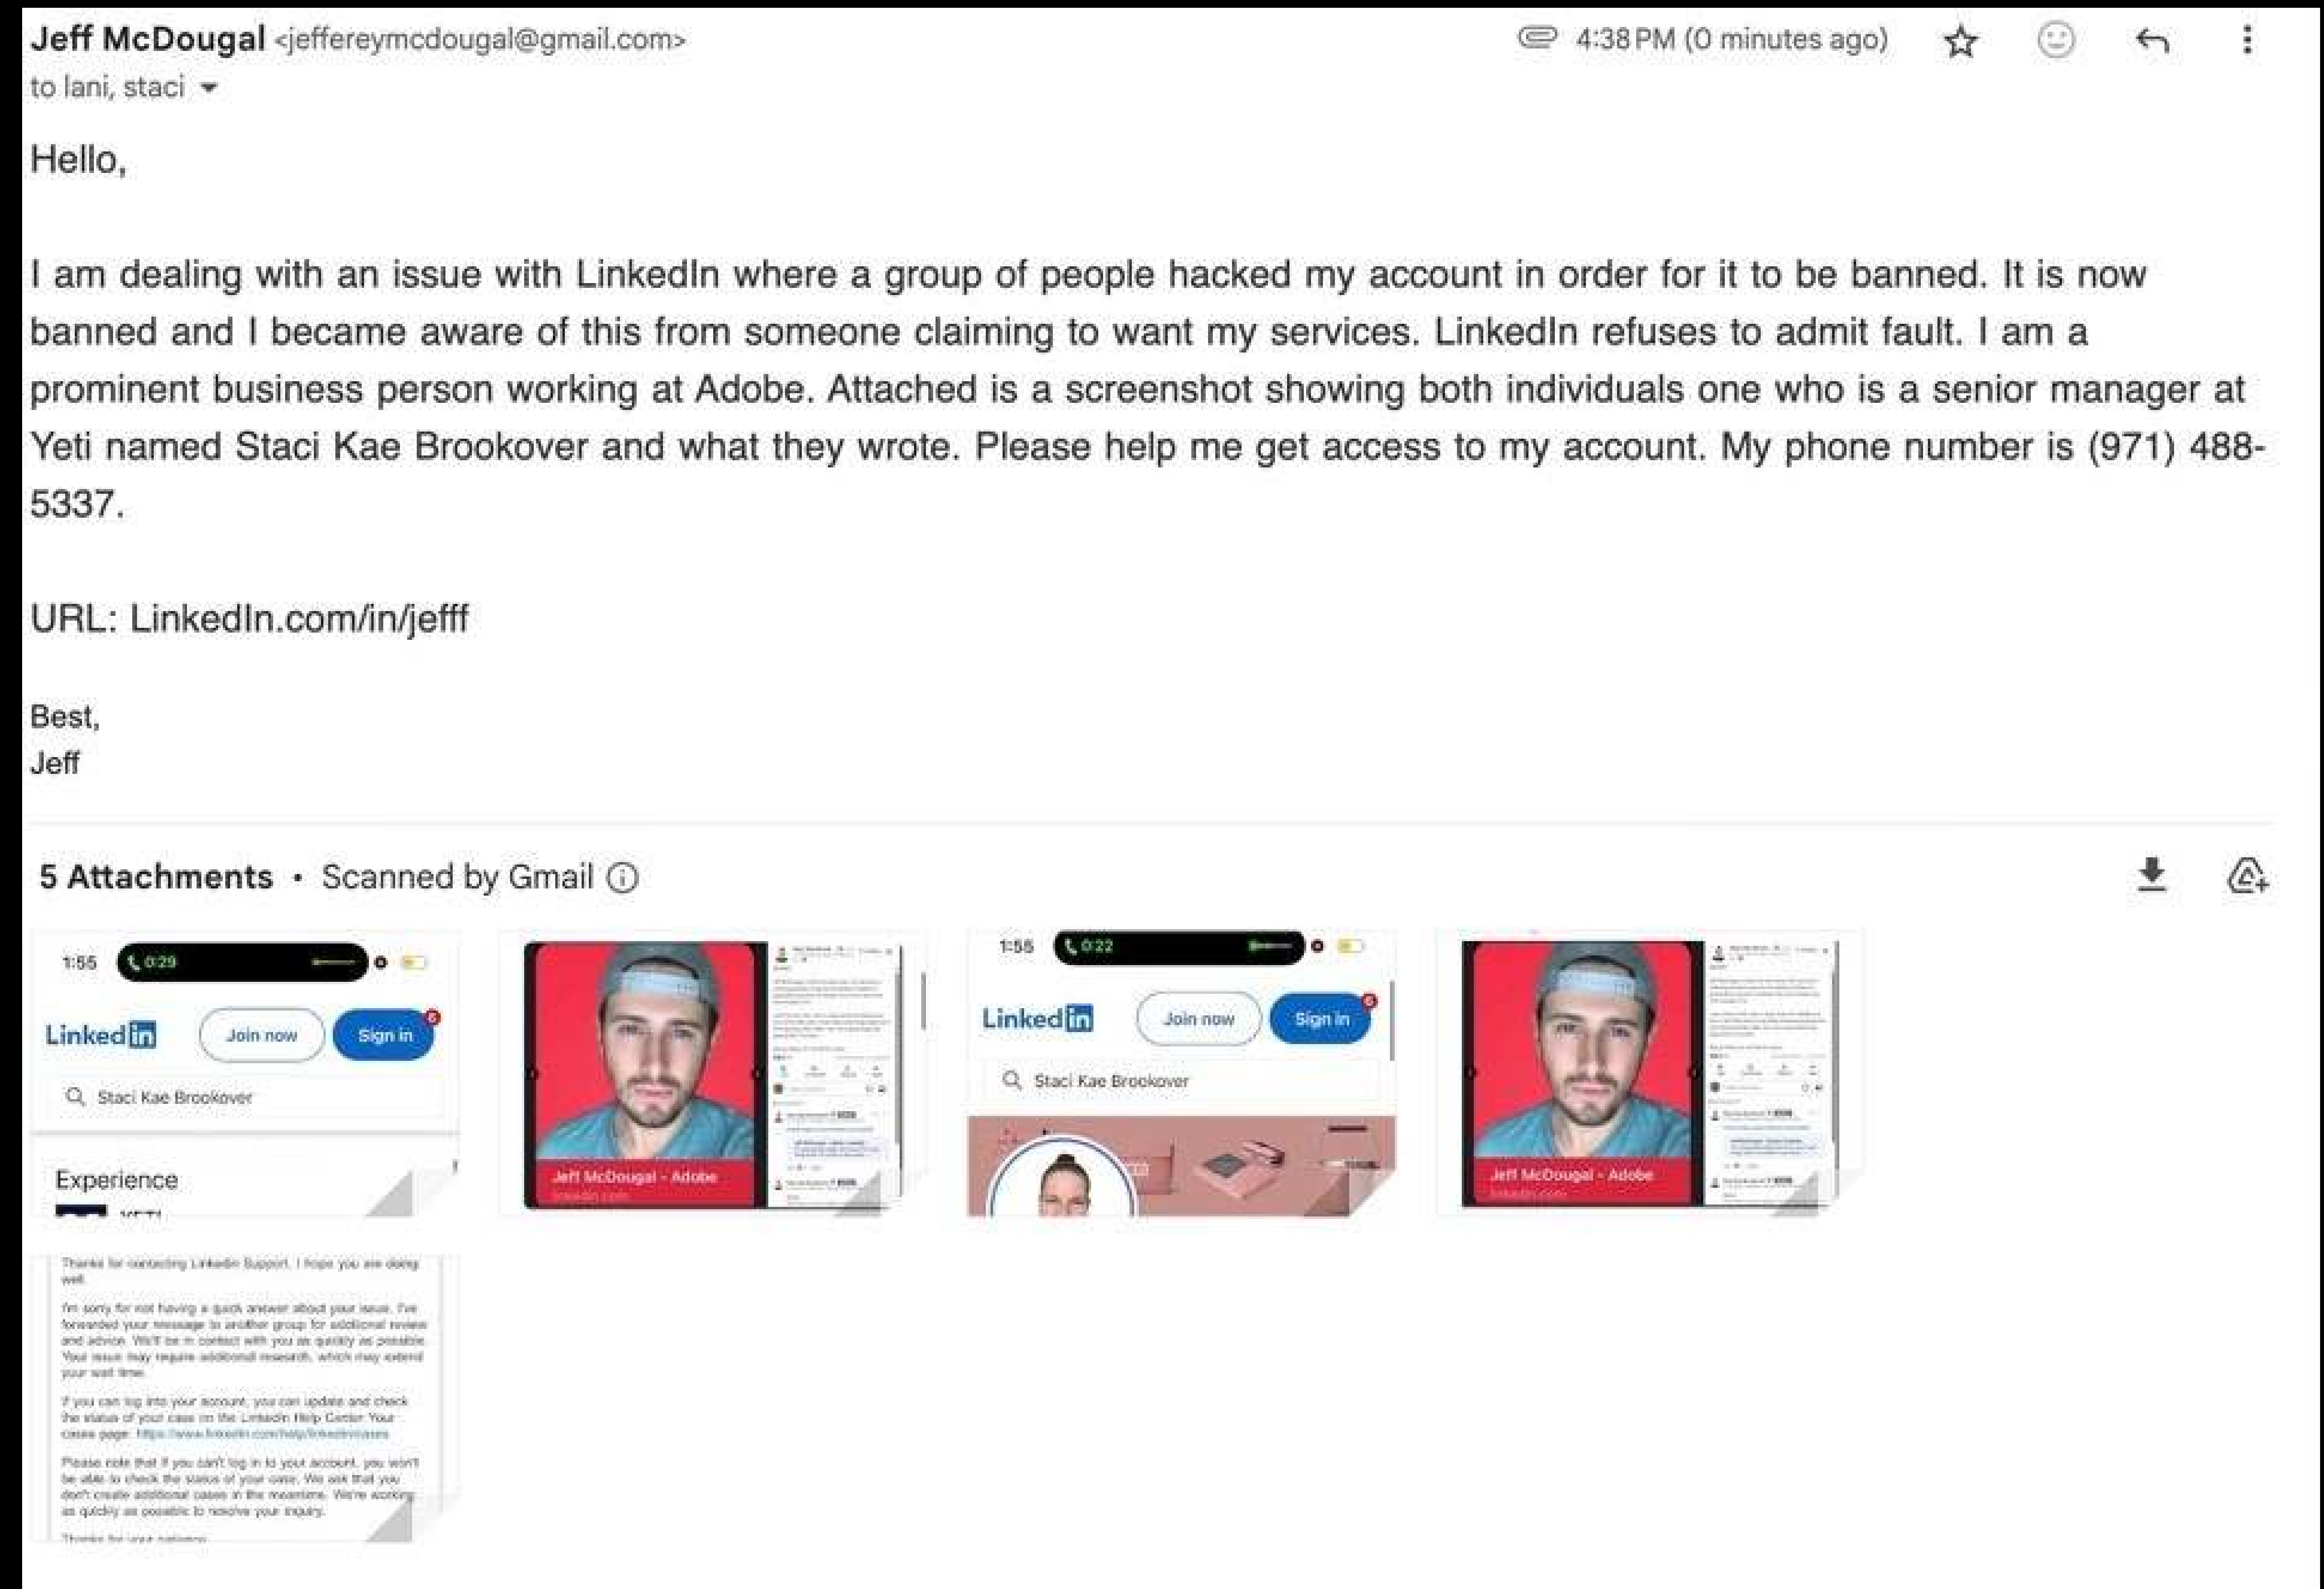

JEFF MCDUGAL—UNABLE TO HANDLE HIS PROFILE'S CHOKEPOINT, CONT.

Jeffrey chose option 3, play the victim. It's DOCUMENTED the many women he scammed and was actively trying to scam when so many came forward with their firsthand experiences with him.

Being clear, his account was not hacked. My detailed case laying out the evidence of his scamming along with the pressure of people rightfully reporting him led to it being banned.

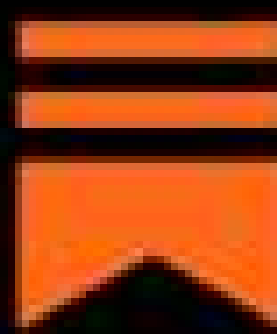

True to his M.O. of attacking women he goes after the two who posted. He avoids me because males like him know who to challenge and who not to. I despise any harm coming to children, women and the elderly. It won't be tolerated.

JEFF MCDUGAL—CONTINUED HARASSMENT OF WOMEN

Another woman commented on what is now part one of the cases against Jeff McDougal. Her comment said she wanted me to DM her.

A PERMISSIBLE THREAT...

She said what you see on the right. She didn't want to be named out of fear for her safety. Jeff has the audacity to play the victim while being a continued victimizer. He won't change.

He's fighting to get the profile back to keep doing this behavior.

Hey [REDACTED]

I saw your comment. What happened? He harass you as well or steal your money?

6:31 PM

Hey Jay! Luckily no he did not take any money from me. As soon as money came into the conversation I was concerned. However, he did send me a few emails after I told him to leave me alone so I am keeping an eye out. I [REDACTED] and am happy to help with this from the background if helpful. Just concerned for my personal safety since he has a violent history.

JEFF MCDOUGAL—THE SCAM DETAILED—RECAP

For over a year I’ve told you that scammers abuse the ease of profile creation to make themselves look legitimate. There aren’t any checks and balances in place for anyone on LinkedIn claiming to work at a company or attend a university. This is good in theory assuming every person on LinkedIn is an honest professional but as we know, there are hundred of thousands of fake profiles.

To be clear, Jeff did once work for Adobe but has not been employed by them for some time now. Yet he still has it listed on his profile.

This well known company combined with his large amount of followers is alluring to job seekers. Using their hopes of finding work he tells them he has a “side business” as a resume writer and will help them get hired at Adobe. He then takes their money and blocks them so they can’t get it back.

He then moves onto the next victim.

STAGING AREA

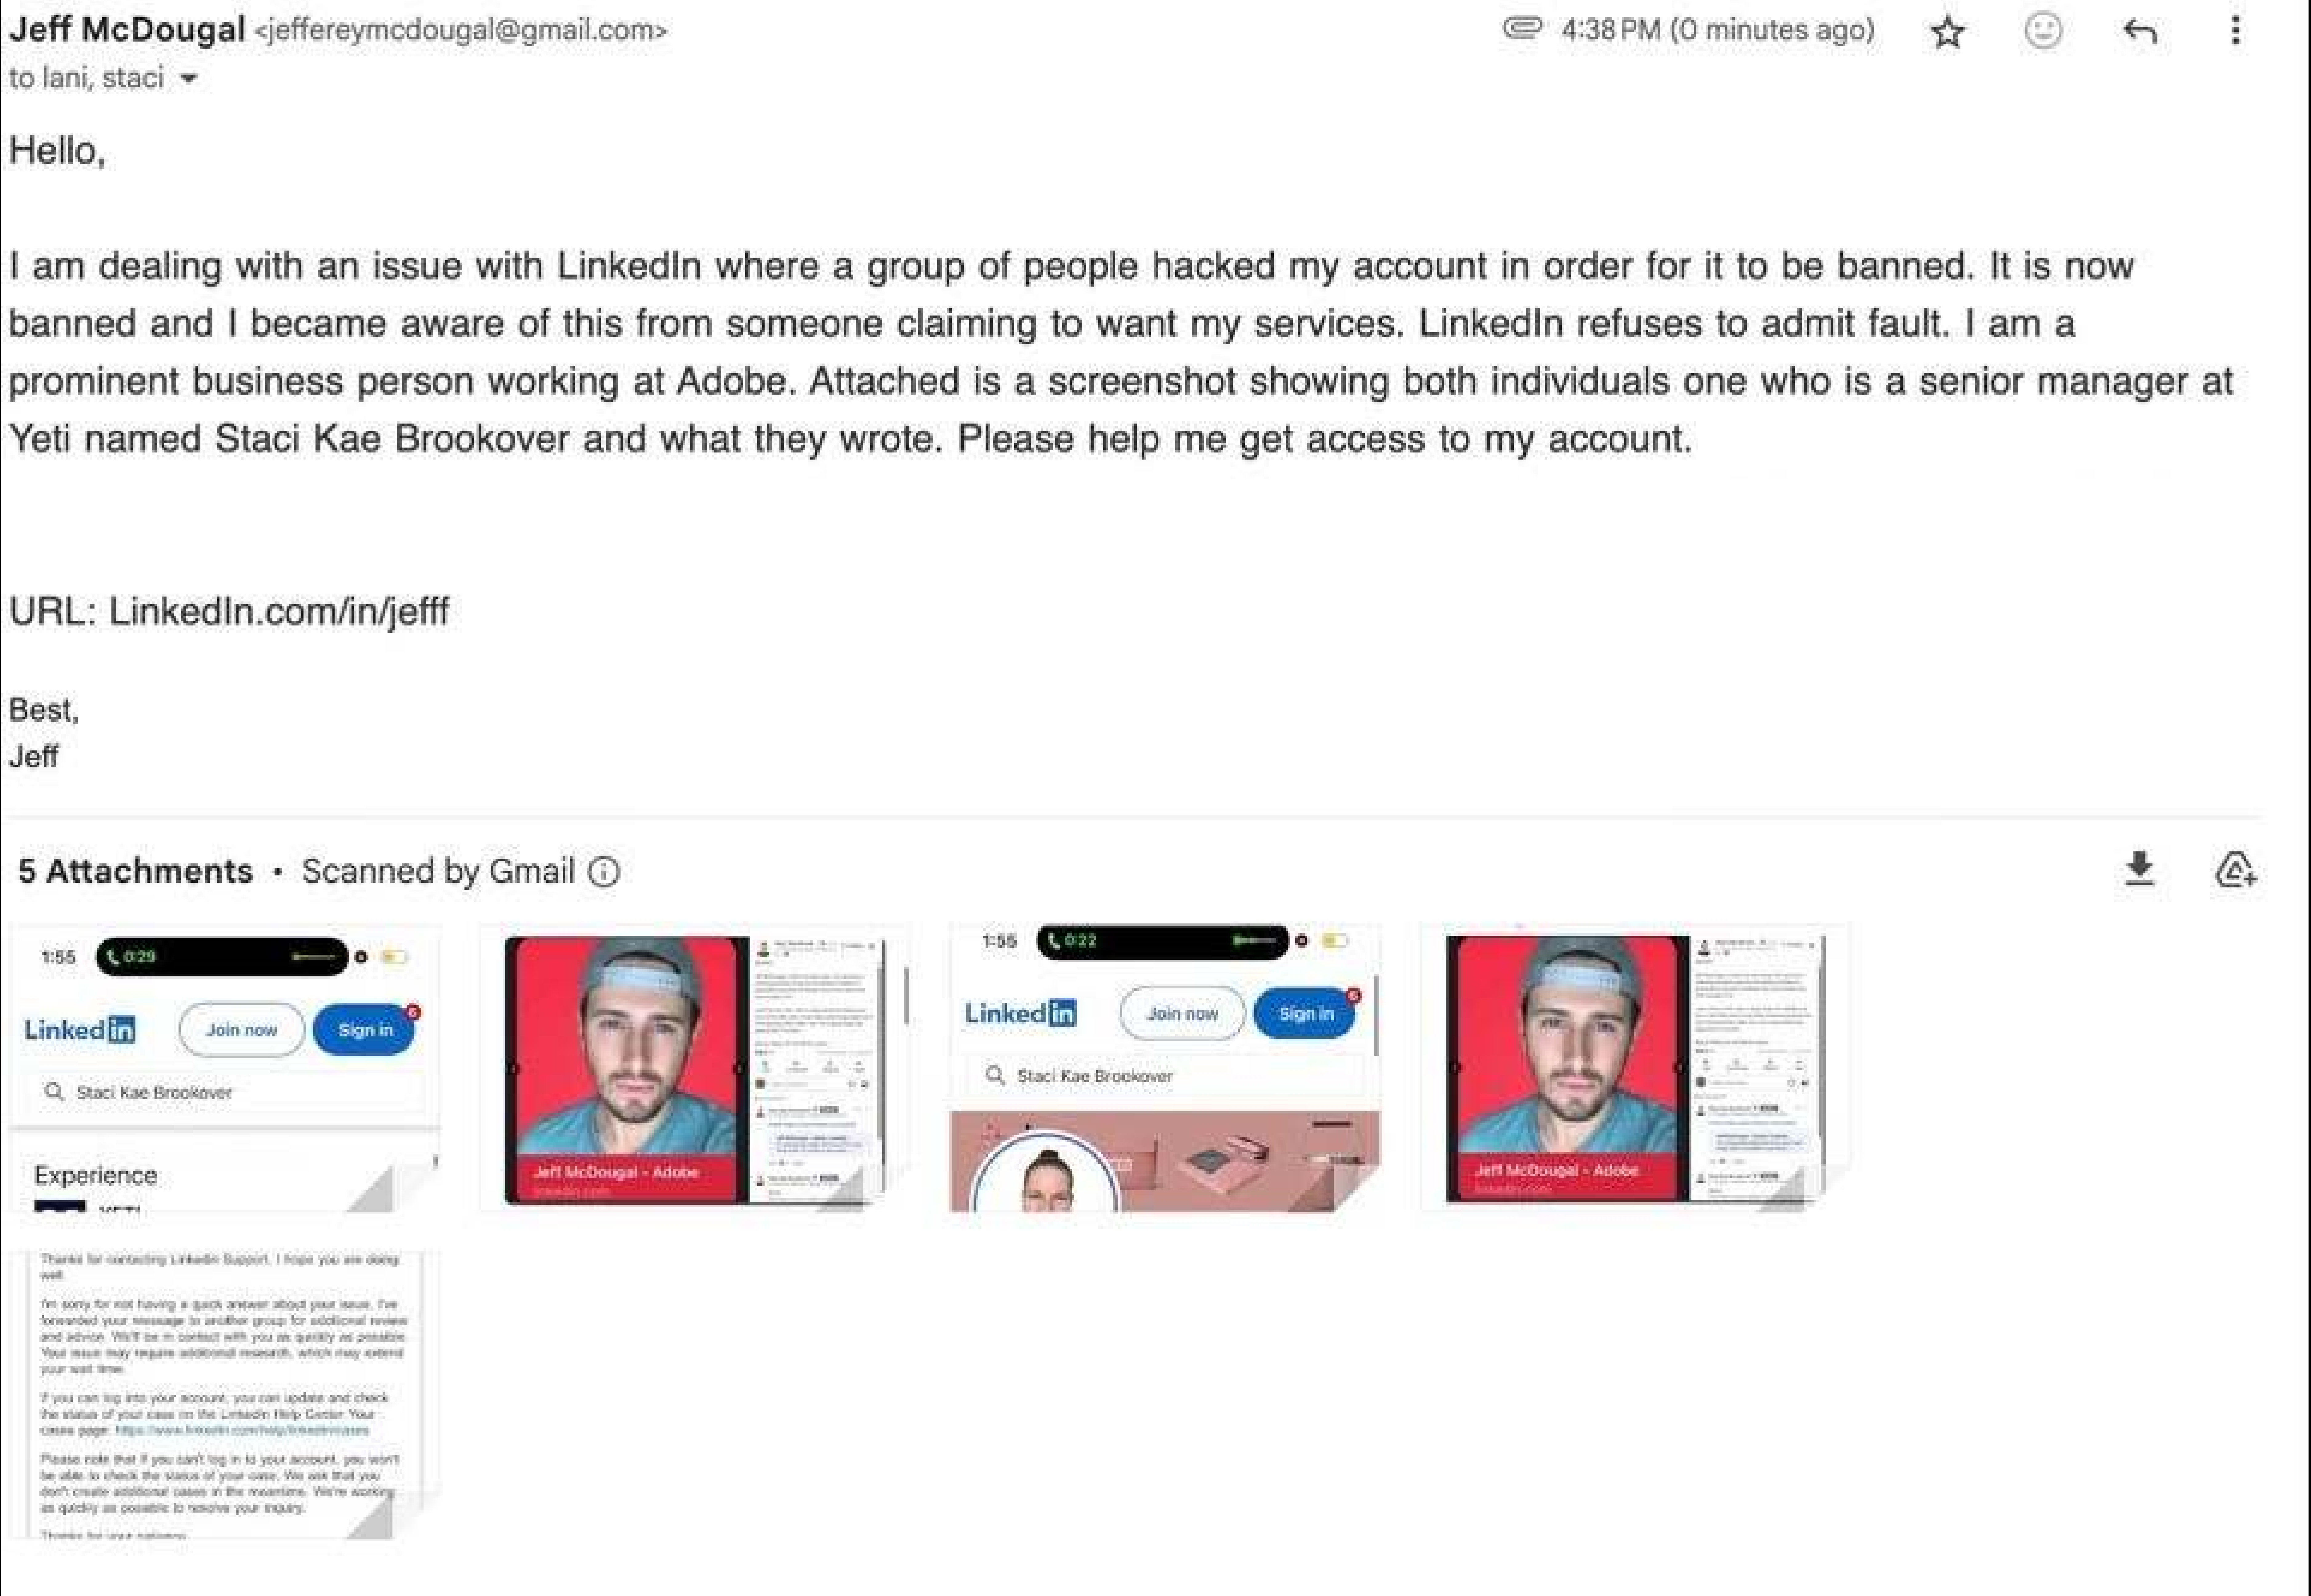

JEFF MCDUGAL WILL BE REFERRED TO AS “THE ACORN” FROM HERE ON BECAUSE HE IS A CERTIFIED NUT. HE’S EXHIBITED SEVERAL OF THE STAGES ON THE RIGHT.

THE ACORN DESIRES TO KEEP SCAMMING PEOPLE BUT THE ACORN CANNOT. I TOLD YOU ALL ABOUT NASEER JATT AND HOW HE’LL NEVER SCAM ON LINKEDIN AGAIN, WELL THE ACORN NEVER WILL EITHER. WHEN HE TRIED TO LOGIN BEFORE REALIZING HIS ACCOUNT WAS BANNED WAS STAGE 1.

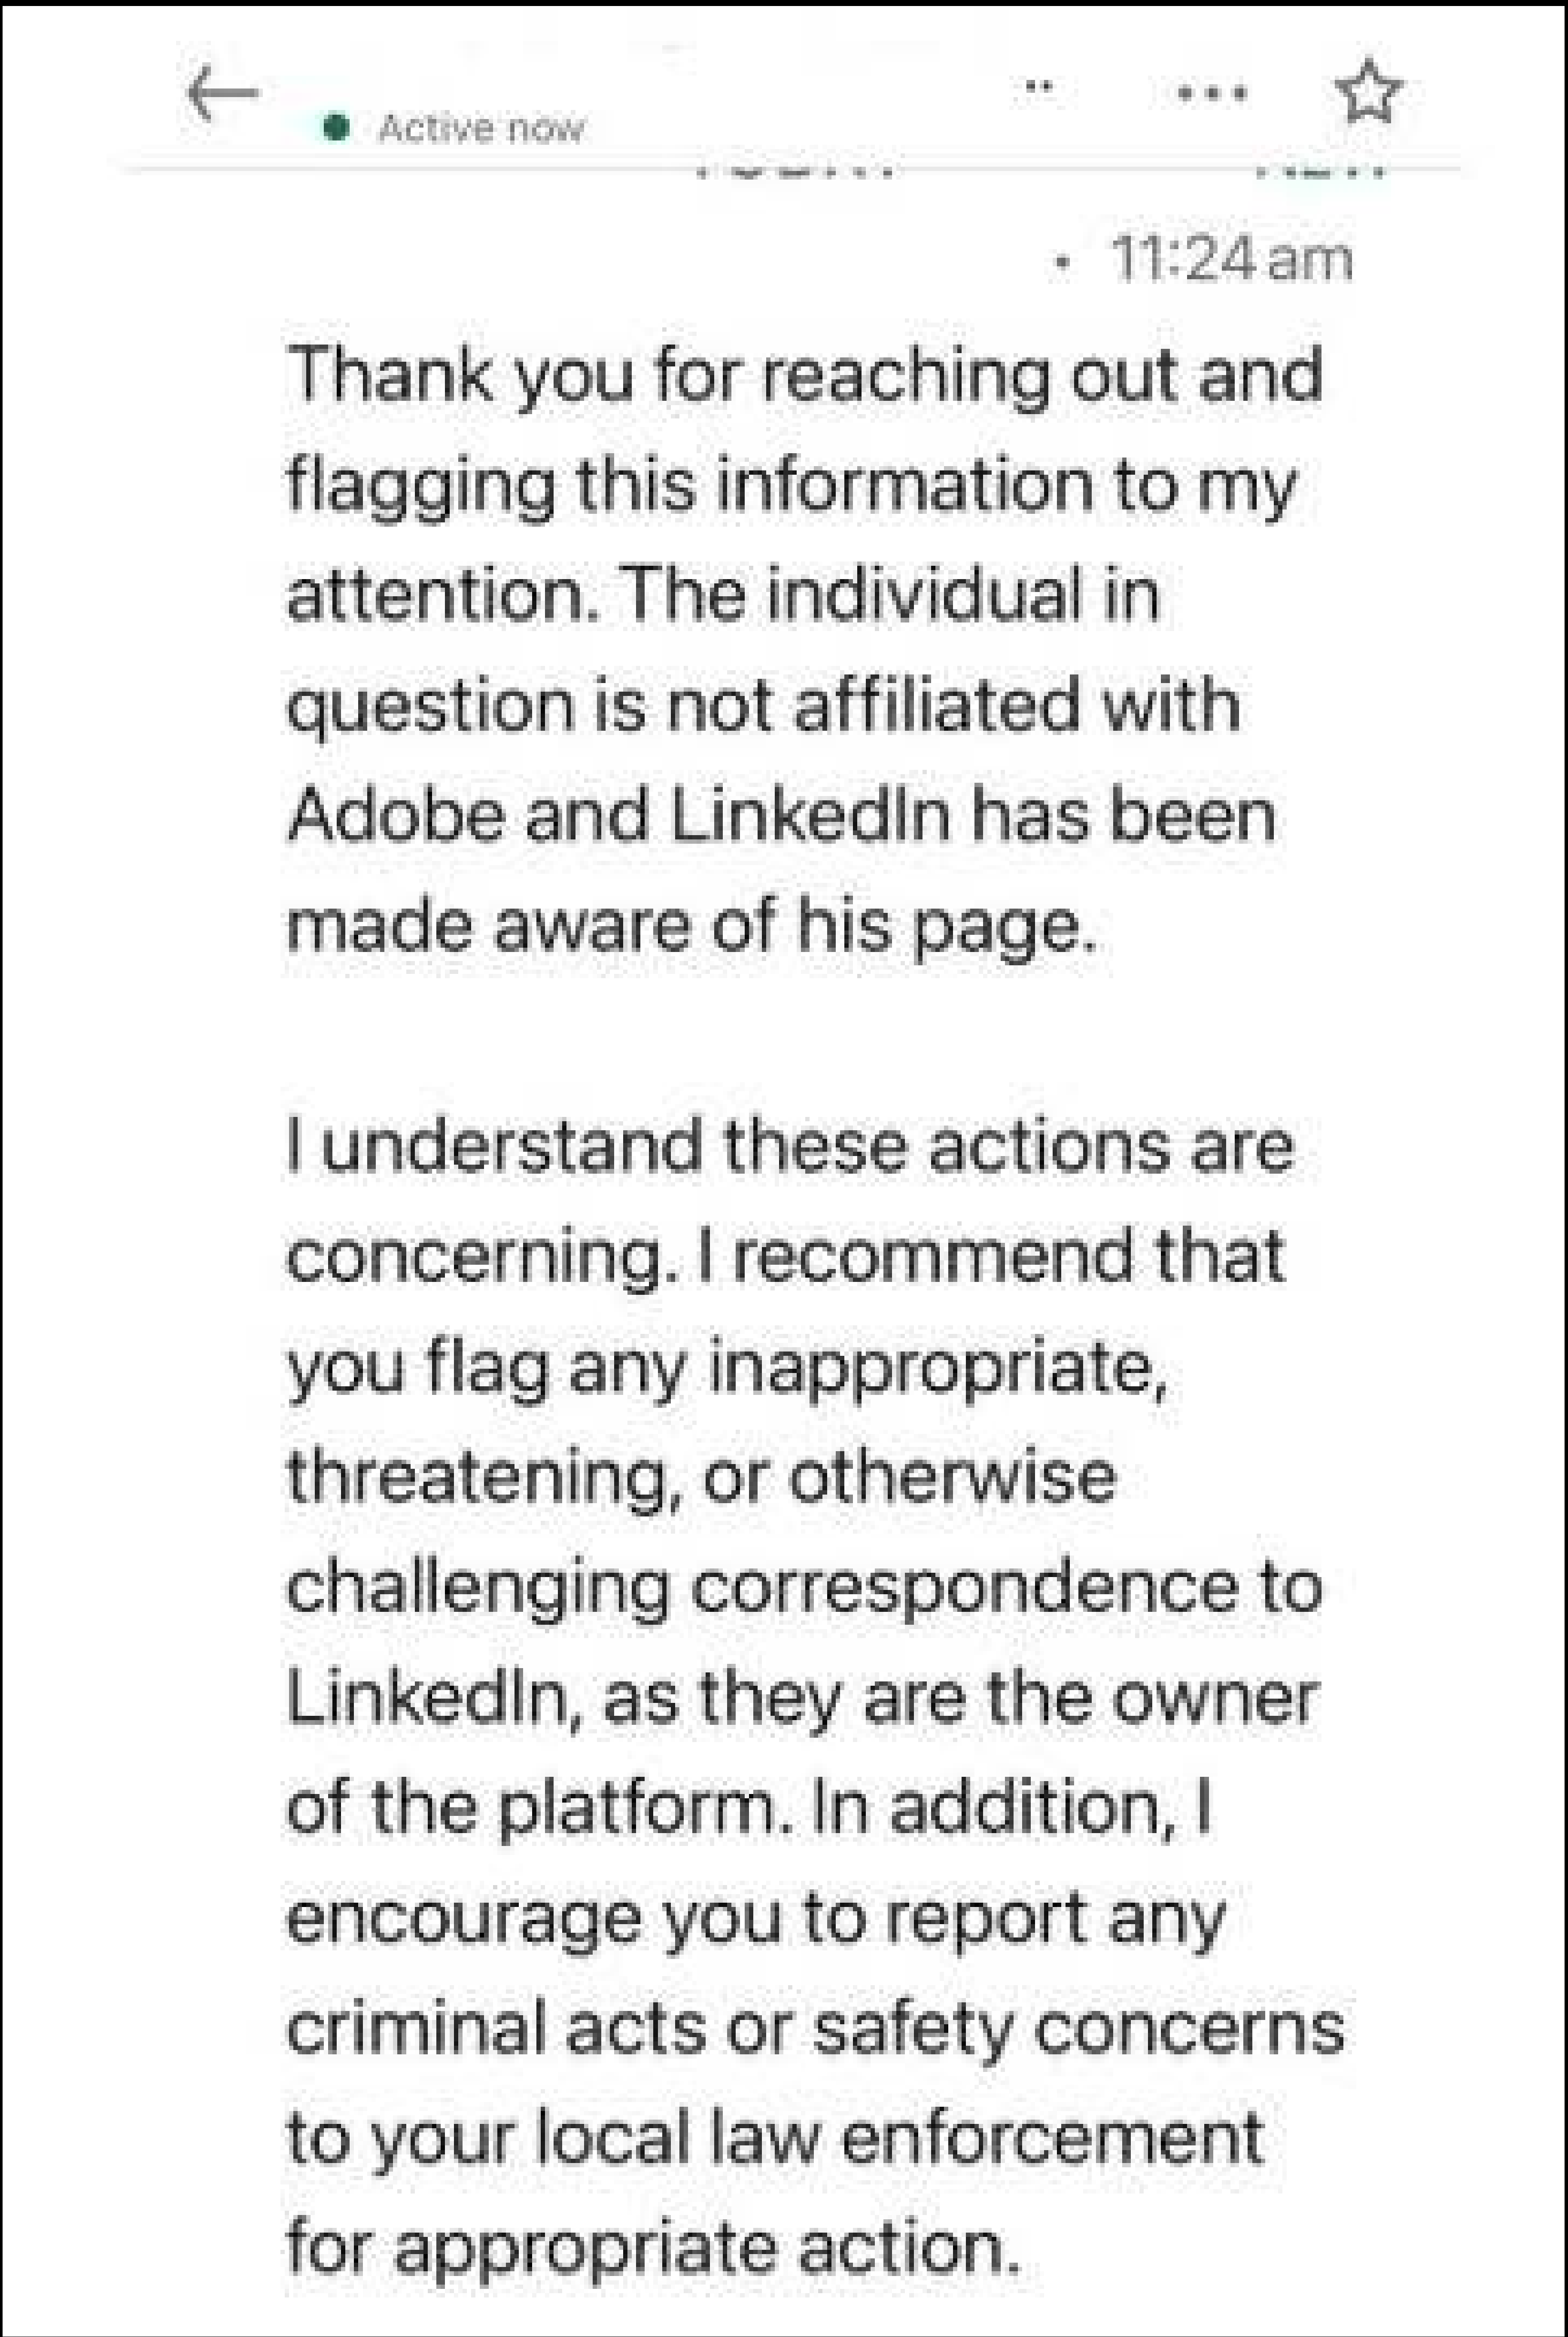

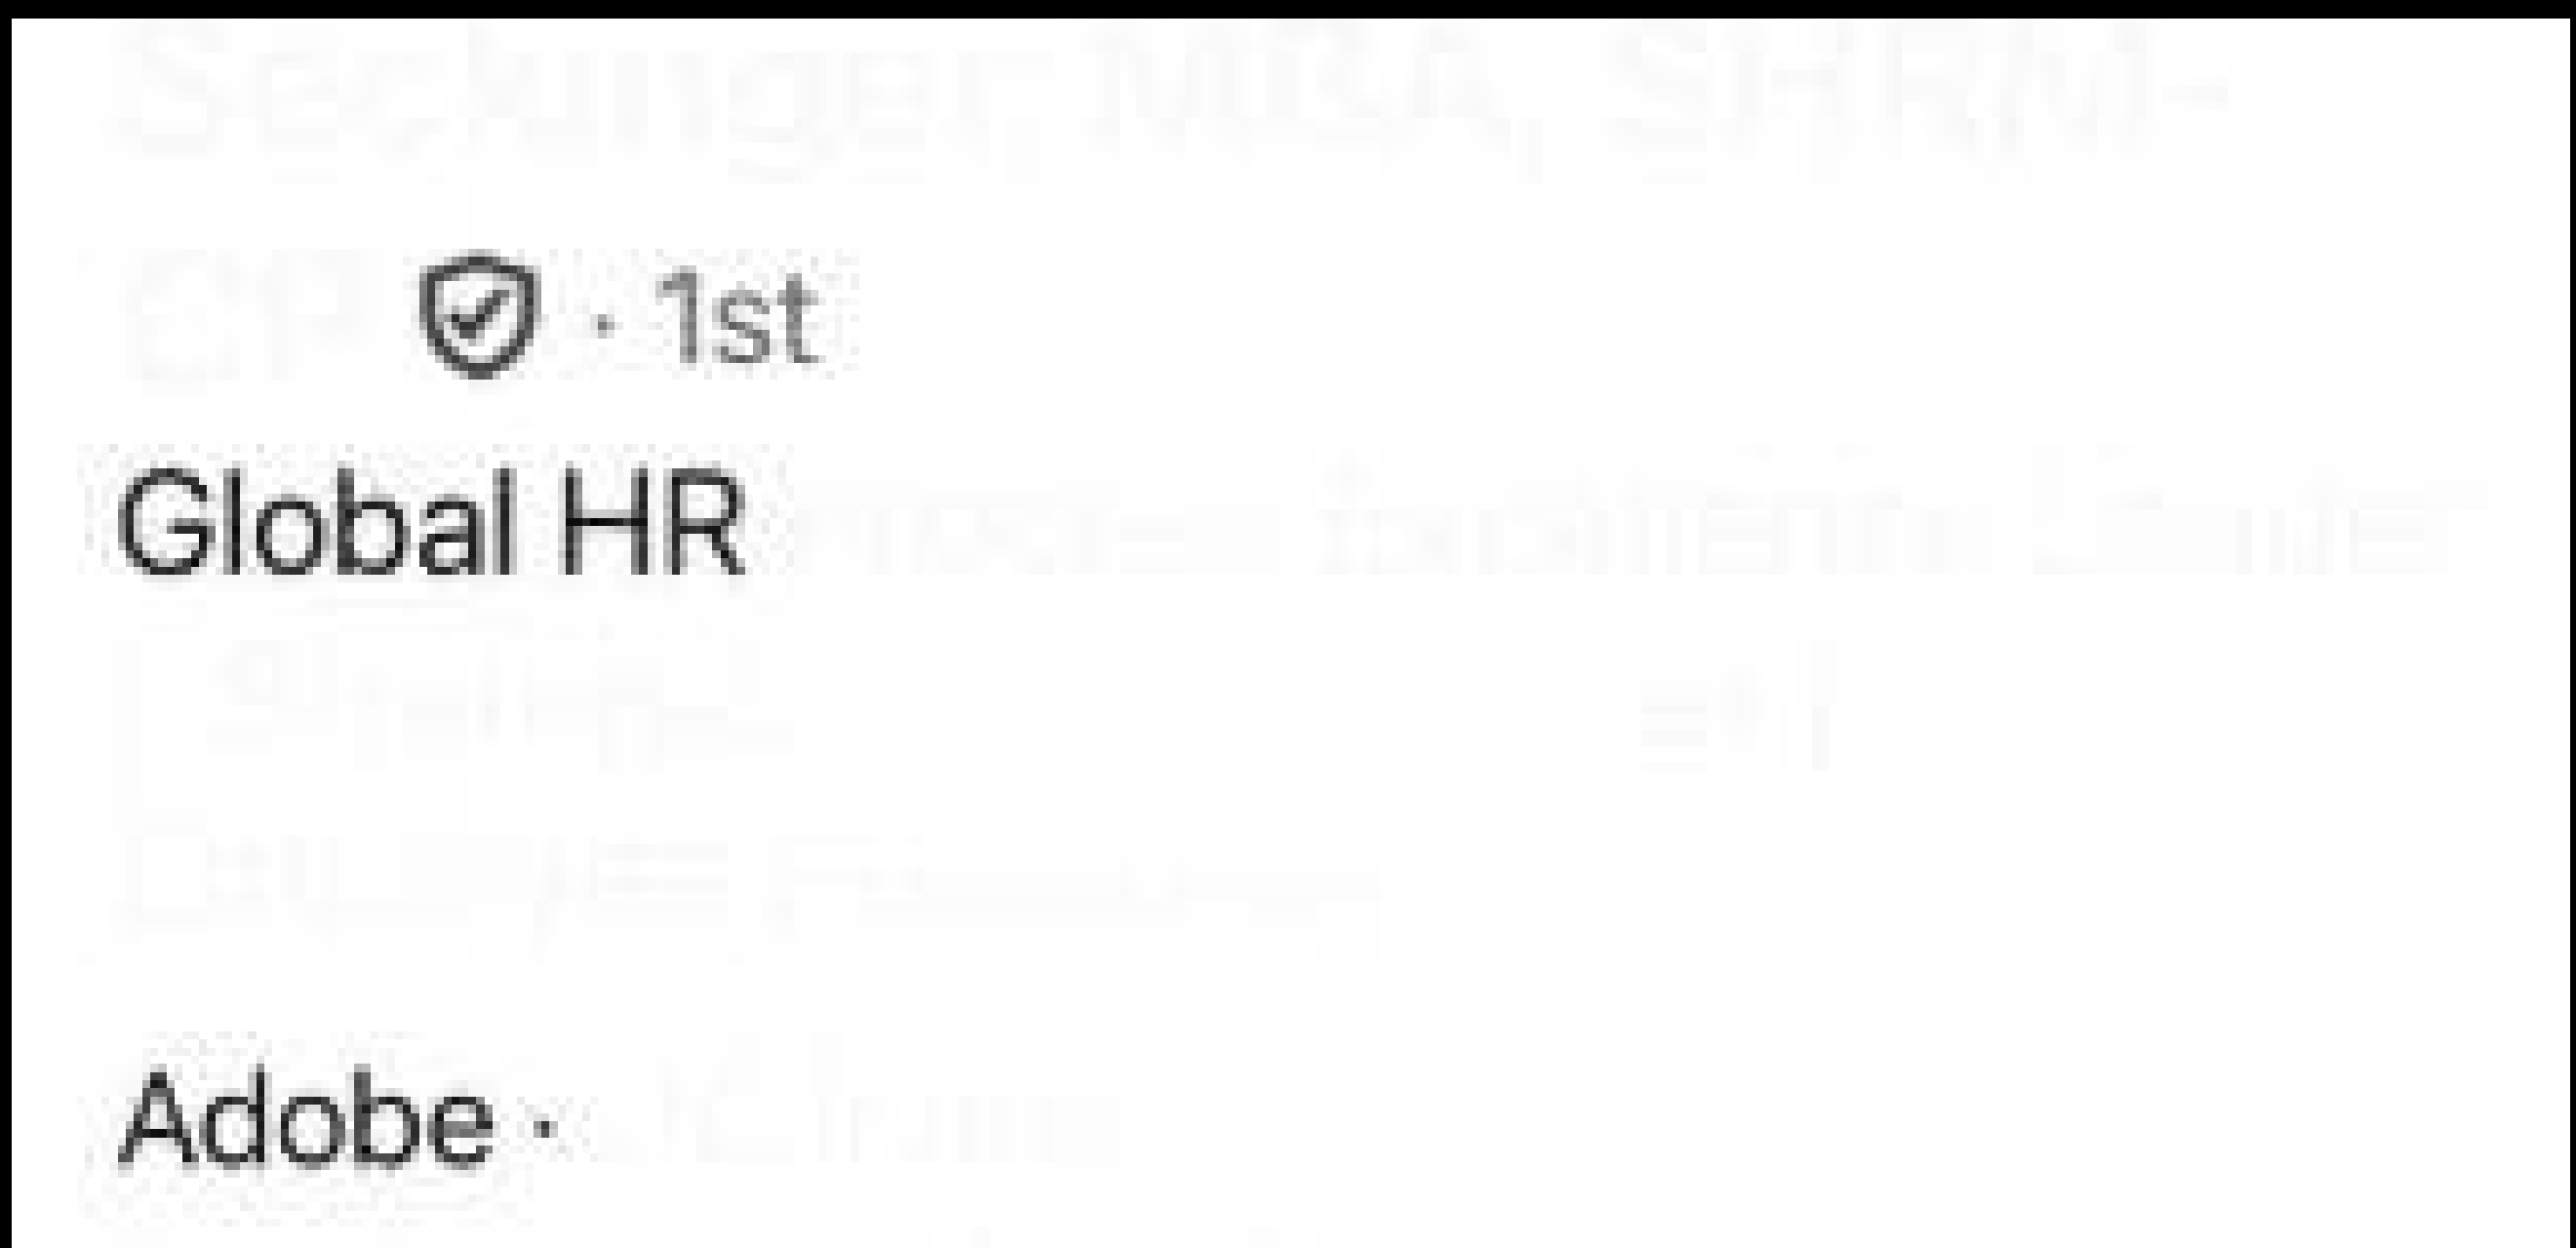

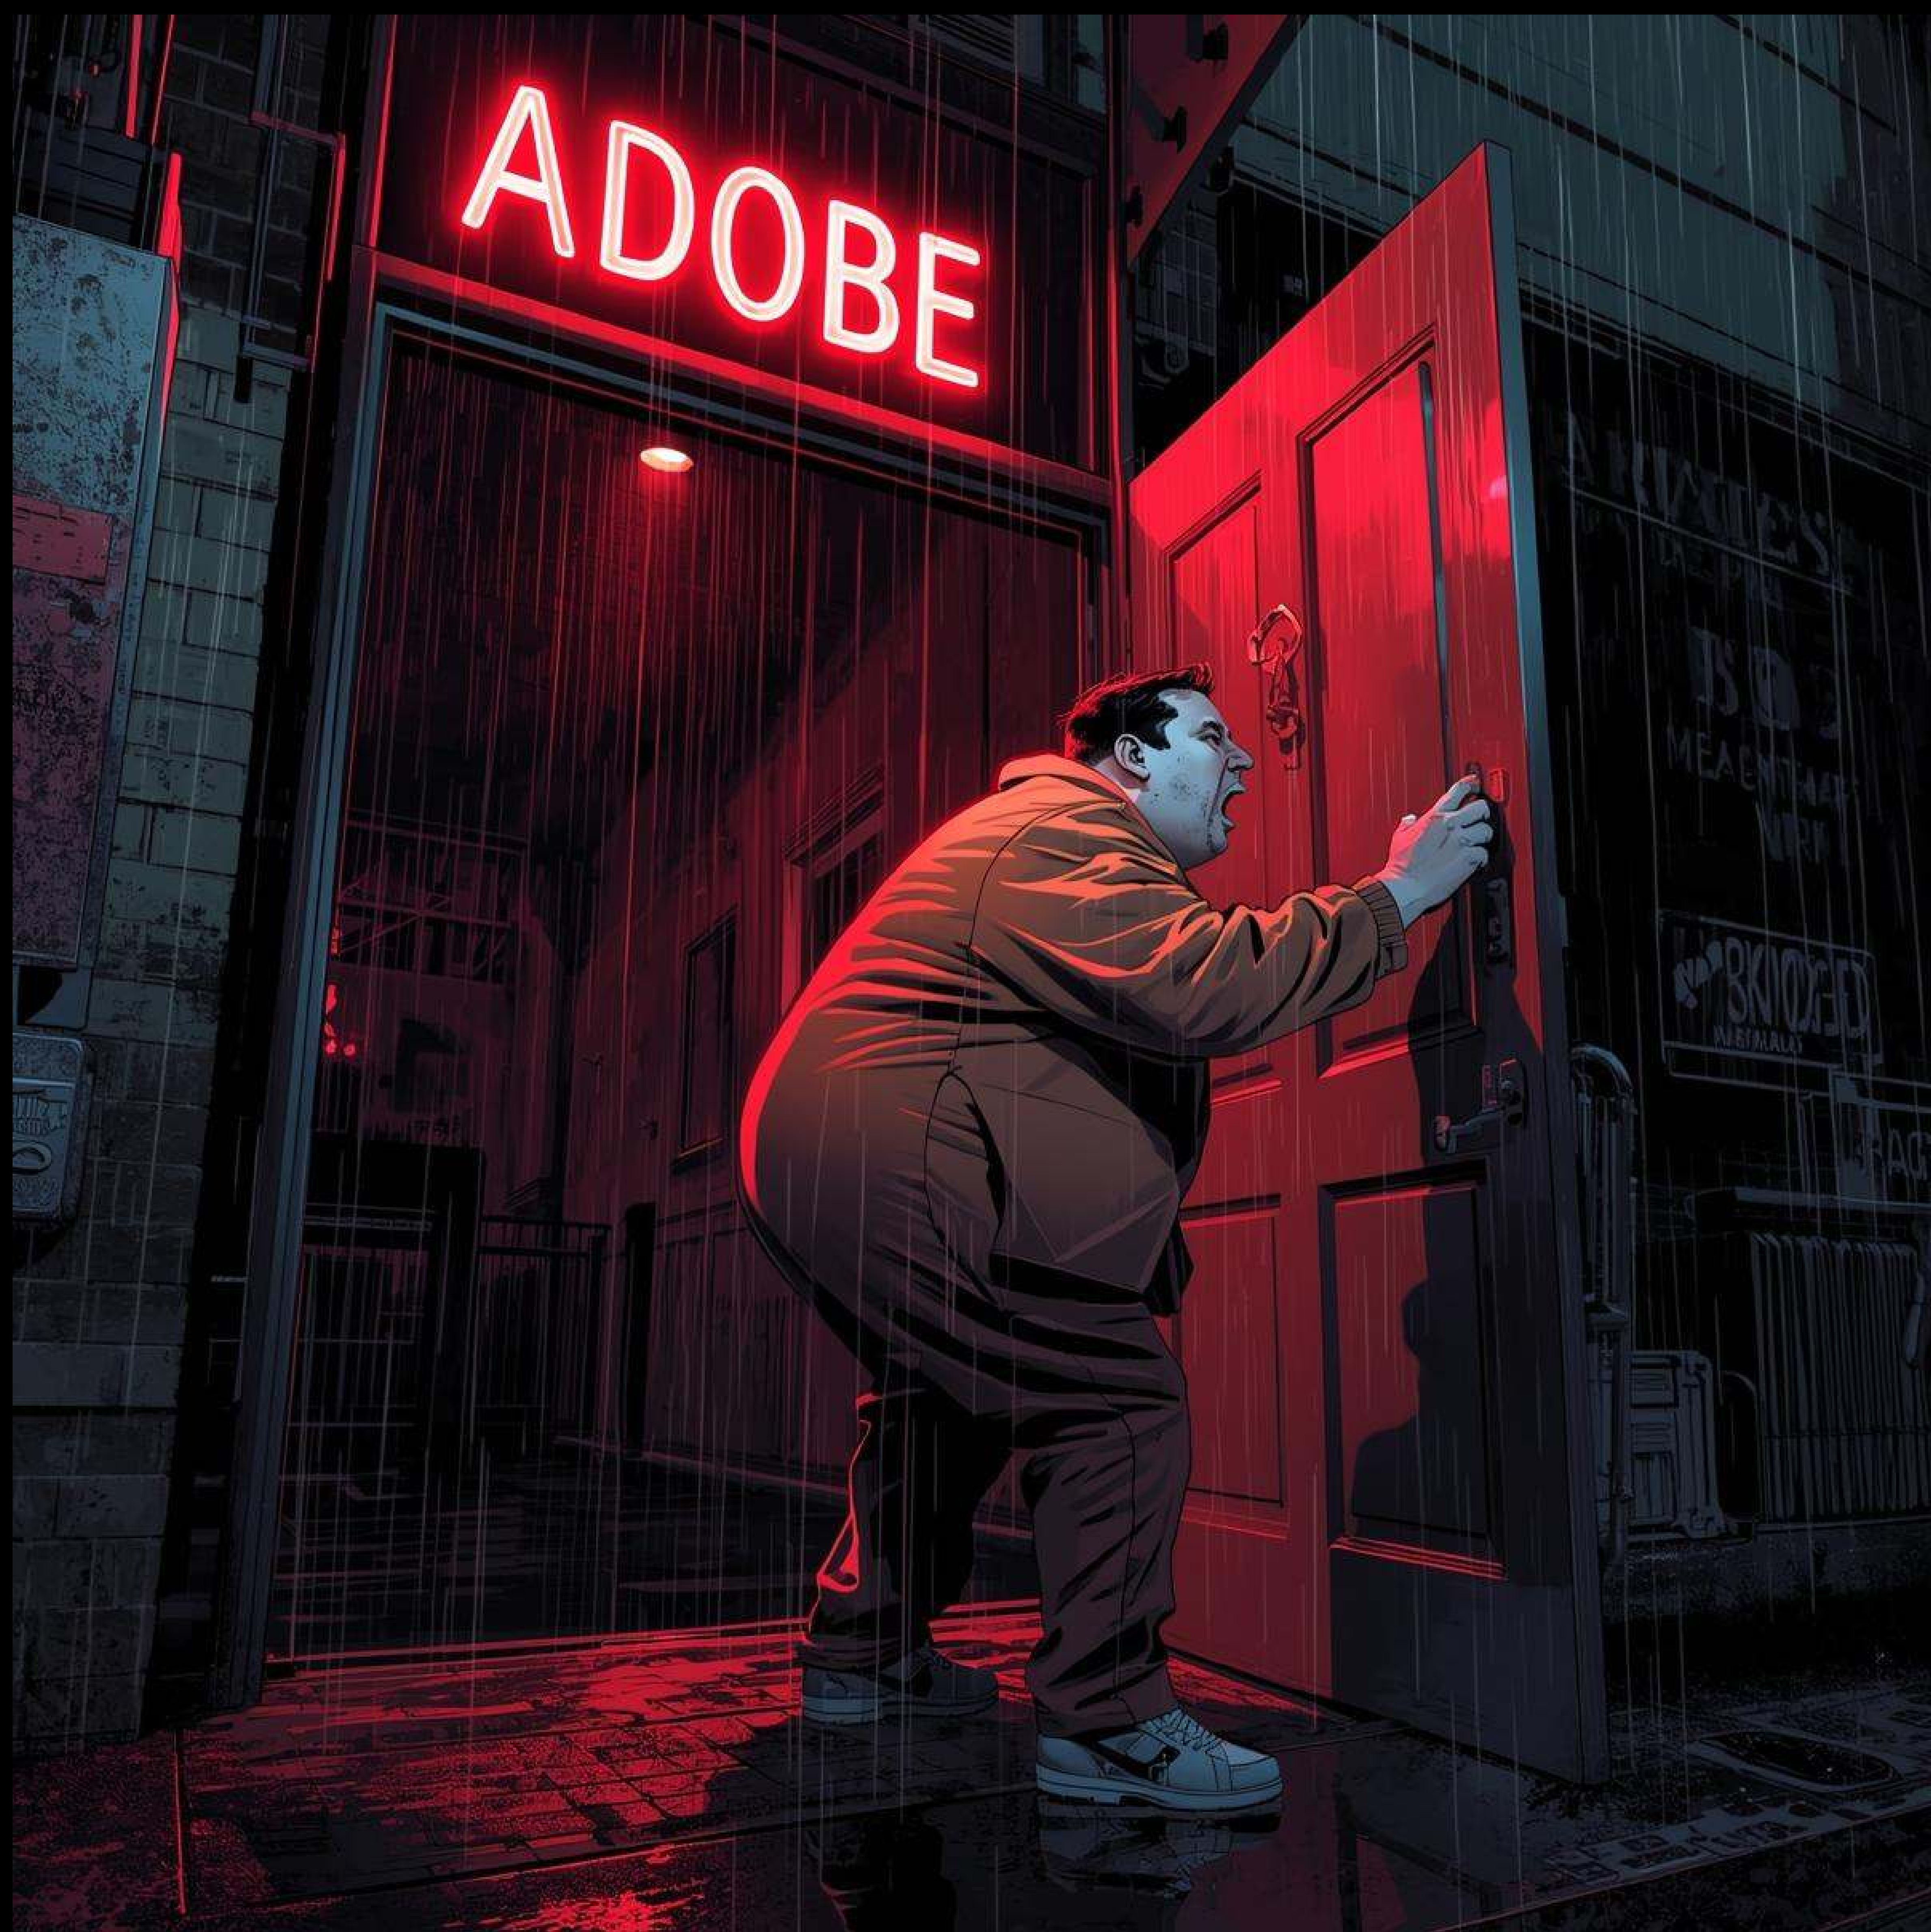

STAGING AREA, CONT. – DENIAL

THE ACORN THEN JUMPED TO STAGE 3, ANGER, CLAIMING HIS ACCOUNT WAS HACKED AND CLAIMED HE WAS A PROMINENT BUSINESS PERSON WORKING AT ADOBE. THE ACORN DOES NOT WORK FOR ADOBE. THE ACORN IS LYING.

STAGING AREA, CONT. — DENIAL

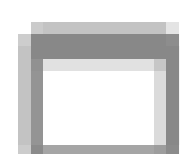

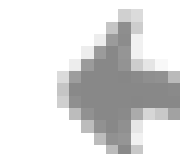

IT'S BEEN CONFIRMED MULTIPLE TIMES THE ACORN DOESN'T WORK FOR ADOBE. MOST RECENTLY ON OCT. 22 WHEN A TOP HR PERSON (NAME REDACTED AS THE ACORN HARASSES ANYONE WHO TELLS THE TRUTH ABOUT HIM) MESSAGED SAYING SAME.

STAGING AREA, CONT. – BARGAINING

THE ACORN CALLED RUSSELL'S JOB OVER 30 TIMES, SENT 38+ BOGUS THREATENING EMAILS, MADE MULTIPLE HARASSING CALLS TO ANOTHER WOMAN'S EMPLOYER AND CONTINUED TO HARASS A WOMAN HE PREVIOUSLY SCAMMED.

OCT 22

Russell Irby • 8:26 AM

He has called the college over 30 times. My office, the President's office, the General Council's office. My boss visited me today and told me they are going to block the number.

Russell Irby • 8:36 AM

Going to take out a harassment complaint against him.

JAY JONES (The Profiler) • 9:00 AM

30 TIMES???? Psycho.

Russell Irby • 3:38 PM

dumbass just called me and kept calling me brother. Asked me why I worked with the psycho in Chicago to have him taken off LinkedIn. Told me I need to get his profile back. Said I was working with the Trump administration to sabotage people. Said I was about to be fired.

JAY JONES (The Profiler) • 3:39 PM

A psycho calling someone psycho LOL

How is this Trump's fault? 🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔

JAY JONES (The Profiler) • 3:47 PM

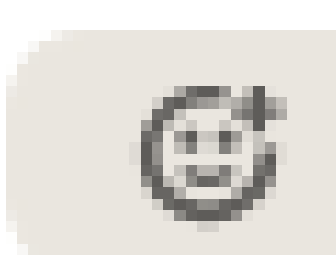

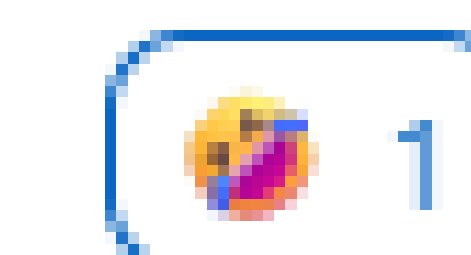

I'm adding that attempted insult to my scammer name calling wall of fame LOL

One scammer once asked me was my brain bad LOL

Russell Irby • 3:50 PM

I kept telling him that he was boring me and it was really upsetting him. I told him I had important things to do like pick my nose because I was certainly going to find something more interesting than him there. He told me I have a terrible broadcasting voice and that my ugly face guaranteed that I would never be on TV. He said I hide behind me computer. I told him, I would be fine giving him my address so we could discuss this in person. He declined. This dude is pure psycho. Was mad at us for taking away the way he made money on LinkedIn.

JAY JONES (The Profiler) • 4:05 PM

Like I said, a coward. A sniveling one at that. Did you record the call? If so, send it to me lol

He didn't make any money he stole. That's how delusional he is.

Hide behind your computer? He literally used AI to make himself look in shape and better looking lol

OREGON HB3273 REFERS TO TWO DIFFERENT BILLS IN THE STATE OF OREGON, ONE FROM 2021 AND ONE FROM 2023. ONE HAS TO DO WITH BOOKING PHOTOS AND THE OTHER IS ABOUT ENVIRONMENTAL SAFETY OF DRY CLEANING.

THIS IMAGE DEPICTS THE ACORN ON THE OREGON TRAIL CRYING WITH AN UNDERCOOKED PORK CHOP.

STAGING AREA—DEPRESSION AND ACCEPTANCE

THE ACORN MIGHT BE DEPRESSED HE'S BANNED FROM SCAMMING PEOPLE. I DON'T CARE AND NEITHER DOES ANYONE WHO SHARED THEIR EXPERIENCES WITH HIM. THE ACORN IS FLAILING AT THE WIND AND WILL NEVER ACCEPT THAT IT'S OVER.

CASE SUMMATION

The acorn's scamming, predatory and harassing behavior towards women went on far too long.

LinkedIn is safer and better for you without him and I'll see it stays that way.

To this day I search for Naseer Jatt to ensure he's not back with his resume scamming.

Same goes for the acorn.

PLEASE SUPPORT

My wife's health isn't improving because of significant postpartum issues. Specifically gastric vertigo caused by Labetalol. It helped lower her blood pressure because of gestational hypertension. However, it loosened her lower esophageal sphincter. The side effect of it causes food that should stay down, to come back up, fermented. This causes severe pain in her body and head causing severe dizziness. Doctors only recommend a proton pump inhibitor (PPI). This doesn't work because PPI's reduce stomach acid. The fermented food combined with less stomach acid, makes the pain and dizziness even worse, triggering another ER visit.

She can't drive > 5-10 miles due to dizziness. There's a mass in her left breast we're praying isn't cancerous. Every night I'm up until 1:00 or 2:00 am working on cases and caring for her and our children. People I've shared this privately with said I shouldn't go into this much detail, but I am because there are so many liars who hurt real people who need help. I want you to know I'm telling the truth.

THE PROFILER GROUP

I started a private group on LinkedIn where you can get exclusive intel on scams, how to spot fake profiles fast, and work together to stop the onslaught of scamming going on.

Here, you can share what's going on in your respective job searches and professions in a safe space.

Remember, do it imperfect and perfect it as you go along.

DM me to join.
